The Schlessinger Story

In the late 1920's, Mrs. Mollie Schlessinger's great passions were taking care of her daughter Betty and her son Jules, as well as serving her husband, Mr. Joseph Schlessinger a delicious hot meal when he got home from work.

One night Mr. Schlessinger said if he opened a restaurant that served Mrs. Schlessinger's chicken in the pot, people would flock there.

Mrs. Schlessinger said, "Then do it, because if you don't, you'll always regret it. I'll help you with the cooking."

So in 1930, with modest savings and a small loan from Mrs. Schlessinger's father, Schlessinger's Luncheonette in West New York, New Jersey was born.

Schlessinger's opened at 5AM to serve the workers on the first shift at the nearby Ideal Laundry plant. He stayed opened till midnight to accomodate workers on the late shift.

Having a father with his own soda fountain made Betty popular with her classmates. They would go there for Schlessinger's famed egg creams.

In June,1950, Betty Schlessinger married Edward Domb and had two sons, Peter and Allan. In 2010 Allan opened Schlessinger's Restaurant and Delicatessen.

We hope you try our Mrs. Schlessinger-inspired chicken in the pot.

And, as Mr. Schlessinger used to say, "What's a fine dinner without schnapps?"

You're welcomed to bring your favorite wine and spirits.
